GENERAL STATEMENT

History The New Orleans Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art was founded in 1919 by Dr. Ernest E. Schuyten, who realized the need for a specializing school in the city of New Orleans. Dr. Schuyten was aided and supported in his undertaking by a number of leading teachers of New Orleans, whose names now appear on the faculty of the Conservatory.

Dr. Schuyten pursued his collegiate studies at the Anthénée Royal, in Antwerp, and his higher studies of music at the Conservatoire Royal, in Brussels, from which institution he graduated in 1900 as a violinist. Later he did special studies in composition.

For several years head of the violin department of the H. Sophie Newcomb College, Dr. Schuyten resigned from the institution to found the New Orleans Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art.

In September, 1932, the New Orleans Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art affiliated with Loyola University and became the College of Music of Loyola University.

Scholarships The Mary B. Scott Memorial Scholarships:

One for Theoretical and Collegiate course.

One in Pianoforte.

Phi Beta Scholarship for Theoretical courses only.

Scholarship applications will receive consideration only if properly made.

Application blanks can be obtained from the office of the Registrar and should be returned to that office not later than July 15th.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS

Loyola University Symphony Orchestra The University Symphony Orchestra, E. E. Schuyten, conductor, is a complete organization composed of members of the faculty, advanced students, and the alumni. Rehearsals are held every week. Membership in the orchestra is compulsory upon all students selected by the conductor. It affords them an invaluable opportunity for acquiring the technique of orchestra playing and familiarizes them with the classic and modern repertoire of the orchestra. Advanced students are given the opportunity to appear as soloists with the orchestra.

Loyola University Choral Union In this division all Musical Organizations within the University take part and contribute to the presentation of larger Choral and Symphony works combined.

The Alumni of the University are invited to join this organization.

Radio The College of Music has the unique privilege of access to the Loyola University radio station, WWL. Courses in voice training and general radio broadcasting technique are offered at the College of Music. Advanced students are required to prepare one program a month for broadcasting.

Religious Organization For the purpose of fostering religious faith and fervor, and to encourage ambitious students to spiritual and scholastic leadership, the University Sodality offers many opportunities for personal development, as well as training and practice in social work and religious activity. Weekly meetings are held for the discussion of phases of Catholic life, and bi-weekly the Sodality gathers in Louise Thomas Memorial Chapel to recite the office of the Immaculate Conception and receive Holy Community in a body.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

Entrance Requirements Graduation from an accredited high school, or an equivalent of fifteen units, is required. Of these fifteen units of high school work, three must be in English, two in foreign languages, one in mathematics, one in science or history and eight in elective subjects. Of these eight elective units, five must be chosen from academic subjects. The remaining three units may be in music or other free electives. Any deficiency in high school credits must be made up during the first year of the degree course.

The musical preparation required for admission to the degree courses, whether or not expressed in terms of units accepted for high school graduation, includes a knowledge of elementary theory which should embrace the subjects of notation, keys and scale construction.

Entrance Examinations Entrance examinations may be taken free of charge at the time specified during the period of registration. At any other time a fee will be charged for such examination.

Conditional Entrance Students lacking sufficient preparation in one or two subjects may be accepted in the College of Music if they show sufficient musical talent, but all conditions must be removed within the first school year.

Advanced Standing Advanced standing in music is given after examination only. Credits in academic courses are subject to the approval of Loyola University.

Transfer of credit is accepted only from institutions of collegiate standing and from approved conservatories which grant degrees.

Courses Offered The Loyola College of Music offers the following courses:

1. A four-year course leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Music:

COURSES IN SCHOOL MUSIC

The courses in the School Music Department are so organized as to prepare well-trained teachers of Music for the elementary and high schools. Music being now part of the curriculum in all schools, there is an increasing demand for highly trained Music Supervisors.

Two courses of study can be pursued, both leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music with School Music as a Major. One prepares the student for General Supervisor, the other for Instrumental Supervision.

The General Supervisor has charge of music instruction in the elementary schools, and of vocal music primarily in the high schools and normal schools.

The Instrumental Supervisor must be qualified as a director of band and orchestra in schools and colleges, and to teach theoretical and applied music courses in high schools.

The course of study is so planned as to satisfy the requirements for the obtaining of a teacher's certificate from the Louisiana State Board of Education.

For Bachelor of Music degree (Instrumental Supervisor) the candidate must offer one major instrument for admission. That instrument may be a string, woodwind or brass instrument used in Symphony Orchestras.

During this course of study all instruments of the Symphony Orchestra are taught. For graduation the candidate must have acquired a degree of ability equal to what ordinarily would be termed as Grade II in all of these instruments.

A. General Supervisor

For the Bachelor of Music degree with General Supervision as principal study, proficiency of Grade 3 in piano (with emphasis on sight reading and technical facility rather than on memorization of pianoforte literature) (see page 25) and Grade 2 in voice is required. For special fee class instruction see page 12.

Participation in the University Choral Union or Symphony Orchestra and (for men only) the University Band is required during each year of residence, without additional credit, of all students electing instrumental classes.

Likewise, participation in ensemble groups will be required without additional credit during the Junior and Senior years.

B. Instrumental Supervisor

For the Bachelor of Music degree with Instrumental Supervision as principal study, proficiency of Junior Standing on one orchestral instrument is required, and one year of private instruction on basic orchestral instruments. The selection must include a representative of the string, woodwind, and brass sections of the Orchestra.

The degree of proficiency in Minor instrument is of Elementary Standing, grades 1 and 2. It is understood that if, at the end of the allotted time, the degree of proficiency is not reached, the study will have to be continued. Credit will not be given until a satisfactory examination is passed.

Participation in the University Symphony Orchestra and (for men only) the University Band is required during each year of residence, without additional credits, of all students electing instrumental classes.

Likewise, participation in ensemble groups will be required without additional credit during the Junior and Senior years.

Extra fees are charged for Applied Music. (See page 12.)
